The evening will include an encore performance of Women of the Bible, depicting Deborah, Miriam, Ruth and Naomi—strong women who made a difference more than 2,000 years ago. The upbeat The Way It Was..., a trio of compassion and joy woven together to form a Nigun (song/dance), will be followed by the moving solo, Dream of Hope, Dream of Despair, depicting the thoughts of a Holocaust captive. Yemenite Dance will close the program, showcasing the stylized movement and elaborate garb typical of Yemen as part of the Jewish Diaspora.
